Coulter, the Parricide Confesses to Perjury.

WHILE HIS WIFE IS PRAYING

On Her Bended Kness Before the Court of the State.

ethodist evangelist who converted im. The open air had removed all acces of jail life. Judge Steere asked onlier, who had no attorney and said e did not want one, if he understood he charge and had read the information. The murderer said he understood the charge and had read the information. The murderer said he understood the charge and had read the information of the charge, but had not read the indictment, whereupon Prosecuting Attorney thok him to the judge's private som and read it to him. Returning oulter said he was rendy to plead.

"Are yet guilty or not guilty" sked the judge.

"Guilty," replied Coulter, who connued: "This is a small, private matter etween me and God."

All of this time Mrs. Coulter knelt efore a cheir in the court room in full lew in ellent prayer. Judge Steere manded the perjured parricide to the instody of the sheriff and he is in jail wasting sentence. To a correspondent udge Steere mid he would probably as sentence next Saturday. The enalty of ordinary perjury is five cars' imprisonment, but Coulter is harged with perjury in a murder trial, which may be imprisonment for life. The judge will examine into Coulter's anity. He says he does not want to entence a lunatic.

FACTS ABOUT THE BEDS.

A Detroit Newspaper's Inquiries Con-cerning Them Answered.

Lansing. Feb. 12.—A Detroit morning paper inquires of a Lansing evening paper who are the republicans that it intimates owned their own beds and which were bought from the officials with the public money. The latter paper has not replied, but according to the report of the investigating committee in the Soper case, the Hon. John F. Rich was one of the parties who owned his bed, and it is also authority that the name was purchased by the democratic board of state auditors from Mr. Rich when he retired. It would be difficult to accertain either that to all appearances the folding bed that was good mough for Land Commissioner Dix was not considered good enough for the Shaffer tamily and was put in the basement for use of the janutors and a new one purchased in its stead. Then in the execution of the Shaffer tamily and was put in the basement for use of the janutors and a new one purchased in its stead. Then in the execution of the state where there we have there we have the state of the parties and a new one purchased in the state of the parties where there we have the state of the parties and a new one purchased in the state of the parties where there we have the state of the parties and a new one purchased in the state of the parties where there we have the state of the parties of the partie pflice where there w folding bed under republica og ded the most ordinary sort of o in the private office is now in it expensive folding bed and an og at lounge. These facts are simply surface indications and no prediction can be made of what might be developed by investigations, but this is the record if two departments.
